

Shades Creek

Flowing Through Time

Birmingham Historical Society

Birmingham Historical Society's
ANNUAL MEETING
Publication Celebration
and
Heirloom Cake Contest
Favorite Family Cakes

Monday, February 25, 2019
7:00 p.m. • Strange Auditorium
Birmingham Botanical Garden

Enter the Cake Contest Yourself!

- Bake and Bring your very favorite Family Cake
- Write the recipe and a paragraph including whose recipe this was, how it fit into your family life, and anything else you care to share
- CAKES WILL BE RECEIVED BETWEEN 3 & 4 p.m. on February 25 (judging begins at 4)
- All attendees will have the opportunity to taste the cakes after the program

PROGRAM

Three Views of Shades Creek

drawn from Shades Creek: Flowing Through Time, the newest volume from the Birmingham Historical Society

“It’s Old and Beautiful”

(a conservation viewpoint starting with the creek’s creation)
by Brian Rushing

“A Park of Metropolitan Scale”

(early plans by landscape architects Manning and Olmsted/plus groups who rose in opposition to development)
by Marjorie White

“Why Shades Creek Matters”

(land uses along the creek and its role in watershed and water quality)
by Birgit Kibelka

Remarks by Tom Carruthers Jr.

OTHER BUSINESS

Opportunities to join the Society and pay 2019 dues of $40

Signing of Shades Creek: Flowing Through Time
by author Marjorie White, photographers Hunter Nichols and Bram Odrezin (books available for $30)

Refreshments from the Favorite Family Cakes Competition