ANNUAL REPORT TO THE MEMBERS 2016

- Conducted the Annual Meeting, a Valentine party at the W. S. Brown House, now the Clubhouse on Highland, to commemorate the 40th Anniversary of the reemergence of the Society in 1976 and honored public servants Valerie Abbott, Ben Erdreich, and David Herring for their service to historic preservation and the Society.
- Researched, illustrated, and published the 2016 Members' Book: For Science and Humanity: Building Southern Research and celebrated its release at a "medieval" party at Quinlan Castle on Southern Research's Southside campus.
- Continued researching, mapping, and photographing for the 2018 Members' Book: A New Look at an Old Creek—Birmingham's Shades Creek.
- Hosted the annual Heritage Society Luncheon at the Allen Johnson-William and Diana Slaughter House on Cherokee Road.
- Continued to grow Grandmother's Garden using early 20th century heirloom plants and practices. This demonstration garden of kitchen and medicinal herbs, perennials, and vegetables is open to the public year round.
- Initiated and conducted eight Second Saturday at Sloss Walks and Talks in Grandmother's Garden and attracted a diverse audience from across the community
- Learned how to use our overhead scanner and digitized and made searchable 550 gigabytes of Society information with the goal of preserving our records and contributing the scanned documents for public access through the Alabama Mosaic program at Auburn University.
